A BRIEF HISTORY OF RTC SRINAGAR (JAMMU & KASHMIR)

LOCATION / ORGANIZATION AND ROLE

RTC-IV Humhama, Srinagar, CRPF was sanctioned on 1ST April 1990. It remained non-functional for initial two years. It was made functional at Awantipora on 07th May 1992 and was shifted to Humhama on 29th March 1994. This Institution is located in a sprawling and picturesque Campus in the Srinagar valley. It is situated at a distance of 07 Kms. from Srinagar City, 4 Kms. from the Srinagar International Airport and 325 Kms. from Jammu Railway Station. It is located at 1800 mtrs. Above mean Sea Level. Temperature variation is 35°C to -05°C. RTC Srinagar is one of the premier training Institutions of CRPF which has been making concerted efforts to provide adequate organizational base to the training system and strengthening the Force by imparting training to personnel at grass root levels at the rank of constables. The primary role is to impart Basic Training to recruits. Due to disturbance in valley, additional role and responsibilities like holding various regimental functions, holding Meetings /conferences /seminars etc, arranging for accommodation to transient officers and personnels.
