On the 8th of October 2005, troops of 136 Bn CRPF launched an operation against maoists at village Benaidhia, PS Simariya, Dist. Chatra. During the operation, troops recovered an iron box from the house of a suspect named Ganju. The troops brought the box out of the house and tried to open the lock. CHHATTISGARH

6 April 2010

Troops of 62 Bn CRPF launched a three day operation against maoists in the general area of PS- Chintagufa, Dist. Dantewada on the 4th of April 2010. On the 6th of April 2010, as the troops were advancing towards village Tadmetla, PS- Chintagufa, the maoists who had laid an ambush opened indiscriminate fire at the troops coupled with blasting of IEDs. The maoists had laid a well planned ambush occupying all the vantage heights of the area. The maoists who were more than 500 in number encircled the troops and tried to completely annihilate them using intense fire. The troops retaliated the fire and a fierce gunfight started at around 0600 hrs. Troops called for reinforcement but that was way laid and a MPV bunker blasted. Though completely encircled by four sophisticatedly armed companies and a Battalion component of the maoists, the brave troopers fought with full vigour and inflicted casualties on the maoists. When the troops found that they have been completely encircled by the maoists, they switched to optimum use of their ammunitions. The maoists had planted IEDs at every possible place where the force personnel would have looked for cover. For six long hours the troops fought bravely against a heavily numbered and tactically positioned enemy. The bravery and valour of the troops could be gauged from the fact that a gallant who saw the inevitable, pulled a pin out of his hand grenade and kept the grenade under his own body to inflict casualties on approaching maoists. Another constable jumped on a maoist position with a primed grenade in his hand. Some brave hearts before losing consciousness concealed their weapons under their bodies so that the maoists could not loot them. For six long hours the troopers fought valiantly with the maoists but did not surrender which was offered to them. Seventy five brave troopers sacrificed their lives but not before neutralizing seven maoists and injuring eight others. The nation and CRPF will always remember these brave hearts that lived to their pledge of serving the nation till their last breath.

[WARRIORS REMEMBERED]

Vol 4 2005-2015

‘Warriors Remembered’, a compendium of four volumes, is an endeavour by the Force to compile the heroic deeds as well as the personal details of 2014 brave men and women of the Central Reserve Police Force who have made the supreme sacrifice in the line of duty, both in India and overseas. The previous compilation was published in 2000. Much has happened since then, and therefore, it was important that their brave deeds are immortalized before they fade from our memories. The Hon’ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi had also called upon the police forces of the country to enlighten the people about the contribution that the brave men and women of these forces have made to the nation.

With an enormous and a diverse history of 76 years (1939- 2015), preserving records has been a challenge owing in part to the nomadic nature of the Force. Therefore, a great deal of effort and perseverance has gone into painstakingly compiling the details of those who had laid down their lives in the line of duty. Memories were rekindled and records revisited to ensure fidelity of the narratives as well as other details. While family members would be given a copy to be preserved for posterity, readers would be enlightened about the brave deeds of the personnel of the Central Reserve Police Force.
